

Report: Call to Action: Achieving Civil Justice for All (Conference of Chief Justices (CCJ) Civil Justice Improvements Committee 2016)

The Conference of Chief Justices (CCJ) Civil Justice Improvements Committee's report, Call to Action: Achieving Civil Justice for All, developed with the National Center for State Courts (NCSC) and Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System (IAALS) through State Justice Institute (SJI) funding and endorsed by the Conference of State Court Administrators (COSCA), delivers 13 reform recommendations for state judicial leaders that aim to strengthen public confidence in the judicial system through fair and prompt resolutions of their civil justice matters. The full report, its recommendations, and appendices can be accessed through <http://www.ncsc.org/sitecore/content/microsites/civil-justice-initiativ...>

Last updated on November 29, 2019.

Year published: 2016

Topics

100% Access to Justice

Files

NCSC-CJI-Report-Web.pdf

Print

Table of Contents

