Remembrances from Colleagues

It was my great honor and privilege to be able to work with Richard while I was at the Public Welfare Foundation in recent years. He was critical in educating and generously guiding me and the foundation in making investments to catalyze forward movement on civil justice reform. So fortunate was I as a funder to be introduced to an amazing network like the SRLN which Richard founded and nurtured for so many years, ready made for future expansion and impact. I am so grateful for all his advice but especially for his vision, insight and persistence in the creation of the Justice for All Project. I truly loved working with Richard and I became his admiring friend in the process. Like all of us, I will miss him terribly but remain ever indebted for his extraordinary contributions to the access to justice field and for his inspiration and trusted counsel to me personally.
