

Resource: Washington Courts Access to Justice Technology Principles (Washington State Courts 2020)

In 2000, the Supreme Court of Washington issued an Order Approving Access to Justice Technology Principles, as set out in the guidance document, Access to Justice Technology Principles.

The following year, in 2001, the Conference of Chief Justice's Resolution 13, CCJ Resolution on Technology Standards, the Washington Courts issued Access to Justice Technology Principles that apply to courts. These principles cover how courts acquire and use technology.

Last updated on January 21, 2022.

State: systemic

Year published: 2020

Document Author:

- Supreme Court of Washington

Topics

100% Access to Justice Courts Technology State-by-State

States

systemic

Regions

United States

Files

Supreme Court Order Approving ATJ Technology Principles.pdf

ATJ Technology Principles.pdf

Print

Table of Contents