Pro Bono Net's Digital Divide Blog Series

Pro Bono Net published a series of blogs focused on exploring COVID-19's impacts on the Digital Divide. The three-part series discusses the exacerbating effects the pandemic has had on communities with limited access to technology and internet, including low-income, Black and Hispanic, Tribal and Rural, and older households. Additionally, the blogs provide a proposed policy roadmap and highlights Pro Bono Net's work to increase access and close the digital divide.
