

Article: Law Libraries Serving Self-Represented Litigants (NCSC 2015)

Law libraries provide essential services to self-represented litigants. To highlight the work that law libraries do to promote access to justice as well as available opportunities to expand services, Joan Belistri of the Anne Arundel County Public Law Library, together with Sara Galligan of the Ramsey County Law Library, highlight and summarize the trends in the provision of services to self-represented litigants by law libraries and conclude with best practices recommendations.
