

Conference: ALL ACCESS: Access to Justice Conference (LLAM 2014)

Event Details

Friday, March 21, 2014 | 12pm-12pm EDT

The Law Library Association of Maryland (LLAM) hosted a day-long Access to Justice Conference focused on librarian involvement in Access to justice.

Program Highlights:

- The Role of Public Libraries in Access to Justice
- Best Practices for Working with Self Represented Litigants
- Opportunities for law firm librarians to raise firm profiles by working with pro bono programs
- The University of Maryland's innovative JustAdvice legal clinic
- Patron assistance beyond legal help

For more information and program descriptions, videos, slides, and handouts, click here:

<http://llamonline.org/lri2014/2014-lri-program-handouts/>

Last updated on October 13, 2015.

Document Author:

- Law Library Association of Maryland

Topics

Law Libraries

States

Regions

United States

Print

Table of Contents

PDF downloaded from <https://atjlibrary.org/node/278/conference-all-access-access-justice-conference-llam-2014>