

Conference: SRLN Conference on Public Libraries and Access to Justice (Austin 2010)

Event Details

January 11 - 12, 2010 | 12am-11:30pm EST

The following are materials from a Conference held in January 2010 on Public Libraries and Access to Justice by the Self-Represented Litigation Network of the National Center for State Courts. The full set of conference materials can also be accessed on Webjunction.org (see link at bottom of page).

Listing of Materials and Conference Agenda

Faculty Biographies

PowerPoint #1: Welcome and Introduction

PowerPoint #2: The Role of Public Libraries

PowerPoint #3: What Public Librarians Can do

PowerPoint #4: Online Legal Problem Solving

PowerPoint #5: Team Meetings

PowerPoint #6: Technical and Privacy Issues

PowerPoint #7: The Role of Public Libraries in the Access to Justice Movement

PowerPoint #8: Legal Aid, Law Library and Court Collaborations for Public Libraries

PowerPoint #9: Customizing the FAQ

PowerPoint #10: Role Playing of Teaching the Materials

PowerPoint #11: Planning for the Future

Link to Webjunction.org archive of all conference materials:

http://www.webjunction.org/documents/webjunction/Public_Libraries_and_A...

Last updated on July 28, 2020.

State: Natalie Byrom

Year published: 2010

Document Author:

- Richard Zorza
- Self-Represented Litigation Network

Topics

Public Libraries

States

Natalie Byrom

Regions

United States

Print

Table of Contents

PDF downloaded from <https://atjlibrary.org/node/279/conference-srln-conference-public-libraries-and-access-justice-austin-2010>