

Conference: 2017 ABA/NLADA Equal Justice Conference (Pittsburgh 2017)

Event Details

May 4 - 6, 2017 | 8:45am-5:45pm EDT

The 2017 ABA/NLADA Equal Justice Conference will be held May 4-6, 2017 in Pittsburgh, PA.

For more information, please visit the ABA's event page: <http://www.nlada.org/equal-justice-conference>

Katherine Alteneder and Alison Davis-Holland will be presenting on Mapping Access to Justice on May 5th, 3:45-5:15. GIS is about much more than maps. This session will explore some of the many possibilities contained in the ArcGIS mapping and analytics package, and then walk through the process from idea to analysis and finally output. Through break-out time, participants will have the opportunity to frame and refine a mapping idea. The session will conclude with discussion time of how open mapping could benefit everyone within our Network and help build and support a 100% access ecosystem. <http://sched.co/AUXP>
