

Evaluation: Report on Programs to Assist Self Represented Litigants of the Baltimore City Circuit Court of the State of Maryland - Final Report (Baltimore City Circuit Court 2004)

CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE CITY

An evaluation of the programs to assist self-represented litigants in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, Maryland. The Report was prepared as part of the Trial Court Research and Improvement Consortium Pro Se Assessment Project and uses an Executive Assessment Tool developed by the Project. This individual evaluation was intended to provide concrete feedback and suggestions to the management of the Baltimore City Circuit Court, to be part of an assessment of the Family Law Pro Se Assistance Projects of the Maryland judicial branch, and to be part of creating a general picture of pro se litigants and pro se innovation throughout the country produced from similar assessments in nine courts in five states.
