

Report: Civil Non-Family Cases Filed in the Supreme Court of BC Research, Results and Lessons Learned (Canadian Forum on Civil Justice 2015)

Canadian Forum on Civil Justice  Forum canadien sur la justice civile

This is the Final Report of the Canadian Forum on Civil Justice's (CFCJ's) Attrition Study entitled Civil Non-Family Cases Filed in the Supreme Court of BC Research, Results and Lessons Learned. This study, which is a part of the CFCJ's larger Cost of Justice project, aims to examine the outcome of unresolved, civil, non-family cases in the BC Supreme Court and assess the level of satisfaction among claimants. In addition to presenting the study's survey findings, the report makes several recommendations that could potentially improve research that attempts to collect data about court users experiences.
